

Summary

Presentation	7
Urban changes in Braga in Late Antiquity: The area of the Roman Theater	11
1. Introduction.....	12
2. Braga in Late Antiquity	13
3. The Late Antiquity constructions in the theater area	16
3.1 The north parascaenium built unit (BU1)	17
3.2 Built units of northern upper platform (BU2 and BU3).....	20
3.2.1 The built unit 2 (BU2).....	20
3.2.2 The built unit 3 (BU3).....	22
4. The ceramics analysis	23
5. Conclusions	27
The urban morphology of Braga between Late Antiquity and the fourteenth-fifteenth centuries	29
1. Introduction.....	30
2. The morphological evolution of the city of Braga	31
2.1 The occupation of the city throughout the Suebic-Visigothic period (from the fifth to the eight centuries)	32
2.2 Urban changes occurred in the ninth-thirteenth centuries.....	37
2.3 The transformations occurred throughout the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries	41
3. Conclusions	44
Late Antiquity and early medieval ceramic wares in Braga (Portugal)	47
1. Introduction.....	47
2. Temporal and spatial framework.....	50

3. Analysis of ceramic wares	54
3.1. Description and characterisation of the ceramic ware groups.....	55
3.2. Imitation ‘Late Antiquity cinzenta ’ wares	56
3.3. ‘Common Late Antiquity cinzenta ’ wares.....	58
3.4. Early medieval wares	59
4. Conclusion.....	60
Buildings and structures for productive activities in late medieval Braga	65
1. Introduction.....	66
2. Squares.....	67
3. Tents	67
4. Shops (boticas).....	68
5. Chãos	69
6. Butcheries (açongues)	70
7. Tanning structures (pelames).....	71
8. Conclusions	72
Power networks in Braga (Portugal) in late fifteenth century:
Town council, archbishop and the cathedral chapter relationships.....	75
1. Introduction.....	75
2. The urban oligarchy of Braga: documental sources and problems	77
3. Men and their space	79
4. City power structures	81
5. The positions and profiles of the local council holders	83
6. Some actors.....	87
7. Conclusion.....	89